

IN THE NAME OF JESUS

Now I am back in South Africa - I flew back via Cairo on EgyptAir, and had good flights.

Jabu and I are now reunited and he was so happy to see me – nearly as much as I was to see him.

It is now winter and the temperature sometime plummets to -7c at night. During the day it is around 20c with beautiful sunshine.

The country awaits the passing of 'Madiba' (Nelson Mandela) the father of the people, and the tension is growing as the days pass.

Life continues and the visit of President Obama has proved fruitful especially amongst the youth, even though there has been some hostility towards him.

It is good to be back with the 'fellowship' and to share what God is saying to us – I am so grateful for this, I realise God has placed me with people who are journeying with Him in a deep way and who have wonderful testimonies.

We have been reading a book which is well worth getting and reading called 'The Rest of the Gospel' by Dan Stone and David Gregory. It has been life transforming for many of us.

2 days after I arrived back here, two of the fellowship were married – the ceremony was held at the place where I stay. It was a lovely celebration of God's Love .

As the song goes 'Love, love changes everything.'
Arnie and Phlynne, friends here in South Africa tie the knot.
The ceremony led by Brian the fellowship Pastor, his children were the flower girls and ring bearer.
